§ 387.06 Permit Registration For Use and/or Storage Required; Fee

(a) Permits for Explosives and Pyrotechnic Materials. A person shall not store, possess, use, sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of, any explosive, including without limitation, pyrotechnic material, consumer or display fireworks, as defined in this chapter, without first obtaining a written permit from the City Fire Chief. This division is not applicable to the use, possession, or control of less than fifteen (15) pounds of smokeless powder, fifty (50) pounds or less of black powder, or less than one thousand (1,000) pounds shipping weight of small arms ammunition, except as required under division (c) of Section 387.04 of this chapter. This division does not apply to a transporter of explosives on highways, railways, or waterways. For purposes of this section, the term "storage" does not include "storage incidental to transportation" when defined as preempted by 49 U.S.C. 5125 or related regulations by federal administrative determinations or court opinions. The fee for any permit required by this section shall be seventy-five dollars ($75.00).

All approved permits are subject to revocation for cause at any time
