CLEVELAND – On Tuesday, August 6, 2019, Cleveland residents are invited to turn their lights on and join Mayor Frank G. Jackson at the 36th annual Mayor's Night Out Against Crime. Mayor's Night Out Against Crime events will occur in each of the city's five police districts with the main event at Euclid Beach Park, 16301 Lakeshore Blvd.

"Mayor's Night Out Against Crime is another opportunity for residents and city personnel to come together and improve quality of life in our neighborhoods," said Mayor Frank G. Jackson. "I invite everyone to join me for a night of fun while learning how to create safer places to live, work, play, and do business in the City of Cleveland."

This year, the Cleveland Metroparks are collaborating with the City to host the main event. The joint venture will include law enforcement personnel from the Metroparks and fun activities to help create an awareness of their Police Force and the many safe, fun activities available to residents at the parks.
